Week 5

Encouragement of the week

This week's assemblies have been on the theme of the concentration of John the Baptist.

Matthew 3: 3 A voice of one calling in the wilderness. 'Prepare the way for the lord, make straight paths for him'.

Archbishop Tenison's Sixth Form Open Event

Academic excellence for each person in a Christian community

Thursday 21 October 2021
6.00pm - 8.00pm

To receive further details about the Open Event please visit our website www.archten.croydon.sch.uk or email: sixthformadmissions@archten.croydon.sch.uk

To celebrate Black History Month, form classes will be able to take part in weekly tasks and discussions in tutor time. Next week, 11th-15th October, tutor groups will be looking at the theme Hair and Activism.

Throughout the month of October, pupils and students can enter a poetry competition with the theme Proud to Be. This theme revolves around being proud of one's heritage and of those past and present who have meaningfully contributed to our society.

Please send entries to: shere@archten.croydon.sch.uk
We look forward to sharing them in the newsletter soon.

Calling all year 7
parents/carers for an interactive Transition
Anxiety Workshop!

We provide a safe space to:

- ✓ Talk about fears and worries children face during transition period
- ✓ Listen to other people's experiences
- ✓ Hear what support might be helpful for you over the next few weeks
- ✓ Give tips and strategies which will ensure children have a positive approach to change and enable a smooth transition into year 7.
